

74th Baden-Powell Fellowship Event Dublin 2022

22-24 April 2022 Dublin, Ireland

“Céad míle fáilte” – a hundred thousand welcomes to Dublin for the 74th Baden-Powell Fellowship Event.

Join us on an adventure to discover Scouting and its impact, both in Ireland and worldwide; connect with friends and fellow supporters of Scouting in the wider BP Fellowship; explore the beautiful and vibrant city of Dublin; take part in Scout activities with local Irish Scouts and come away revitalised to help inspire more support for World Scouting!

It's been a long time coming and the Foundation, along with our local hosts, Scouting Ireland, are raring to meet you and to treat you to some unforgettable Irish hospitality.

World Scout Foundation
Fondation du Scoutisme Mondial

Our event programme combines the best that the Foundation, Irish Scouting, Dublin and its surrounds have to offer. Join Irish business leaders at our Impact of Scouting Seminar and be inspired by young Scouts who will share their experiences of driving positive change. Participate in Irish Scout activities, including dinner with a local group and a Scout activity at Larch Hill International Scout and Guide Centre.

Enjoy a spectacular Gala Dinner in Christ Church Cathedral, celebrating all BP Fellows and recognising new BP Fellows and Honours Programme Members. And immerse yourselves in Irish culture, architecture, history, the arts, nature and more on one of the multitude of fantastic tours available.

Pre-Event Tours

21 April 2022 Tour 1:

National Stud & Powerscourt Estate Distillery

08:00-18:00 | €225 (min. 25, max. 40 persons)

Tour the Irish National Stud and its Japanese Gardens, a unique attraction of outstanding natural beauty that is home to some of the most magnificent horses and exquisite gardens to be found anywhere in the world. Drive through Wicklow, the "Garden of Ireland", to the historic Powerscourt Estate, for a tour of the sumptuous gardens (voted third best in the world by National Geographic) and a tour and tasting in the Irish Whiskey distillery in the Estate's 18th Century Mill House.

22 April 2022 Tour 2: Glendalough

08:00-13:00 | €125 (max. 40 persons)

Explore Glendalough Monastic Site, founded in the sixth century by St Kevin and a source of learning and spiritual contemplation for centuries. Walk the ruins; immerse yourself in its rich history, including the impressive Round Tower used to withstand Viking attacks, the Cathedral, iconic churches and buildings; and marvel at the surrounding natural beauty of Glendalough, the "valley of two lakes".

Dublin Airport is an international airport located 7km north of Dublin. Taxis are readily available as well as a number of buses which travel to the city centre. You may also arrange a transfer with your selected hotel subject to a supplement.

During the event, all transportation will be provided.

Be Prepared!

To remain compliant with Irish health protocols, please note that proof of full COVID-19 vaccination will be required to attend all parts of the event programme. We will continue to monitor the situation, update and communicate our related guidance accordingly.

We strongly recommend that you are fully insured for your flights and hotel costs, etc., in case of cancellation. Please note that if the event is cancelled, the Foundation will reimburse your registration fee in full.

Weather

The weather in April in Dublin is usually mild. Daily temperatures average around 10°C (50°F). We advise you to come prepared in case of rain or shine with a jacket and possibly also an umbrella!
